

EXTENDED HONEYMOONS

Packing multiple destinations into your honeymoon is now a mainstream concept, and it's easier than you think! Even a one-to two-week trip can be multicity, thanks to low-cost airlines like Ryanair, easyJet and BudgetAir, which offer flights starting at $15 one way, mostly in Europe.

Amalfi Coast, Italy

honeymoon trends

Here's where to go, how to travel and more.

sky-high dreams

Still bleary-eyed from your after-party? Upgrade to an in-flight flat bed to catch up on some zzz's on the way to your honeymoon, so you're feeling refreshed when you arrive. JetBlue Mint now offers lie-flat seats (starting at $599) for one-way flights from New York to Aruba, Barbados and California. Delta, United, American and Virgin Atlantic airlines have similarly expanded flat-bed offerings for honeymooners as well. Just don't forget your sleep mask!

SMART LUGGAGE

Bluesmart designed a carry-on ($449, available in December) that takes the stress out of travel. It lets you lock, weigh and track your luggage on your smartphone in case it gets lost. It can even charge your phone and keep a log of the countries you've visited.

Find other fun and unique ideas at TheKnot.com/honeymoons

high-tech hotels

To impress millennials, five-star digs need more than just five bars of cell service.

SHUTTERS ON THE BEACH

The tech offerings at this Santa Monica hotel extend to the street with complimentary Tesla Model S cars available to explore nearby shops, restaurants and beaches. This luxe electric car comes with a built-in tablet and Wi-Fi.

FOUR SEASONS RESORT LANAI

Wristbands at the Four Seasons Resort Lanai at Manele Bay alleviate any stress over misplaced keys.

W HOTELS

A 24-hour Whatever/Whenever service allows guests to request just about anything, and then makes it happen. Whether it means taking couples on a tour of downtown or helping them shop for souvenirs, it's got you covered.